Defendant.)

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Defendant's Motion to Withdraw the Motion to Suppress Previously Filed (doc. 27). The Motion to Withdraw follows on the heels of the Government's Response (doc. 26), which convincingly refuted defendant's arguments for suppression (i.e., unreasonable delay in executing the search warrant and lack of proof of reliability of the confidential informant). Under the circumstances, defendant's withdrawal of the Motion to Suppress is both appropriate and entirely consistent with principles of effective advocacy. Accordingly, for cause shown, the Motion to Withdraw Motion to Suppress (doc. 27) is granted. Defendant's Motion to Suppress (doc. 19) is deemed withdrawn and therefore moot.

DONE and ORDERED this 18th day of June, 2019.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
